YOUTH EXCHANGE PROGRAMME CAMPS & CROISIEREN – INCOMING

Place:  Upper Austria: region Pyhrn-Eisenwurzen, Kirchdorf/Krems, Kremsmünster  First week: Lodge Holzgraben, National Park Kalkalpen  Second week: either hostel-stay or Rotarian families – this will be decided in a few weeks, Kirchdorf/Krems, Kremsmünster  Costs:  Journey to and from Kirchdorf/Krems; some pocket money will be helpful.  Additional fee of 150€ required, to be paid after application is accepted.  Program:  During the first week you will stay together with two rangers in the Camp Holzgraben at the National Park Kalkalpen. The lodge is located in a one-hour walking distance from civilisation (Hengstpass Road) at a lonely, sunny clearing in the middle of the national park forest. The National Park Kalkalpen is the largest forestry conservation area of Austria. In the wilderness you experience how nature really is. The conscious perception of wilderness leads people to their origin and facilitates a new form of face to face encounter with nature. Observation of wild animals, fire technique, orientation in the wilderness is scheduled.  The Lodge is very comfortable. Food will be provided and finalized by the group. Cooking together at the fires pot is one of the special highlights.  Attention: There is no mobile reception at the camp. For further detail see: www.kalkalpen.at.  Second week: In the midmorning the participants will be singing together with some local singers under the guidance of a professional choirmaster.  In the afternoon there are special sport events and outdoor activities also guided by professional trainers.  For both, singing and doing sports, we need non-professionals.
